Sorry, my response to Brandi's last comment may have been a little unclear. I'm attaching a revised response which hopefully hits the mark.

Brandi – I've responded to your comments per the attachment, and while I'm generally comfortable with these responses I'm copying the attorneys in case they believe I missed something. Please let me know if you have any questions about it. Tom

Tom,

Please see the comments I included in this document. We just wanted to clarify some of the points in the state rulemaking process.

Thanks,
Brandi

Good afternoon,

Jeaneanne asked me to share our latest understanding on the timeframes on Florida 404 assumption. The attached document includes the timeframes for Florida's rulemaking and submission, which is based on information provided yesterday by FDEP staff, and also includes the details regarding the requirements for the EPA's 120-day review period. In addition, I just provided Brandy H. with 3 hard copies of the attachment to share with Blake.

If anyone has questions or needs any additional information/clarification please let me know.

Tom
